

GCC BRITAIN EXPO – 30 June – 1 July '10, London Royal Horticultural Halls, Central London

GCC Britain Expo '10 offers a free-to-attend exhibition and a comprehensive and stimulating conference speaker programme, showcasing the economic development of the Gulf and the advantages this holds for you. The two-day exhibition and conference will take place on 30th June and 1st July 2010 at the Royal Horticultural Halls, Central London.

GCC Britain Expo '10 aims to facilitate bilateral trade and investment, and to help forge new commercial relationships between UK and GCC businesses. Providing an opportunity to meet key industry representatives in the fields of Finance, Education, Infrastructure, Renewable Energy and Water.

This Event is an excellent showcase for goods and services from the GCC region and the UK, the Expo will also deliver a wide range of back-to-back comprehensive seminars. With the exclusive opportunity to hear key industry representatives speak all under one roof, these seminars aim to inform, educate and promote bilateral trade.

GCC Britain Expo '10 will include over 50 companies from the Gulf region, with a full two-day seminar programme hosted by UK Trade and Investment covering key topics and issues, supported by ICC World Chambers Federation along with a strategic partnership with The Middle East Association.

With recent sign ups from RAK Free Trade Zone for Theatre One sponsorship and seminar sponsorship from the Hamriyah Free Zone, GCC Britain Expo '10 looks set to be a high profile event.
